

APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF PROGRESSIVE COMMUNITY SERVICES

Progressive Community Services was established in 1979 with the passage of a special property tax levy. The agency, through its Board of Directors, purchases and provides services for eligible persons of all ages with developmental disabilities. Additional information about the agency may be obtained at the agency's website, www.progressivecommunityservices.com, or by contacting Lynn Smith.

Composition of the Board of Directors must meet the statutory requirements of the enabling legislation. Additionally, persons appointed to the board must comply with the policies of the board, agency policy and the resolution adopted by the Board regarding disclosure of potential conflicts of interest on file with the Missouri Ethics Commission. As appointees of a statutorily created entity with broad powers, board members have certain fiduciary duties, which require that they conduct themselves without conflict to the interest of the agency they serve.
