

Progressive Community Services

ADVOCACY & ENGAGEMENT RESOURCES

Older Adults

SCAN FOR MORE
RESOURCES

InterServ

Volunteering keeps people active and involved in the community. At any age, volunteering builds community interaction and self-esteem. Adults and youth are encouraged to share their time and talents in a variety of community service projects to discover the joy of helping others in need.

More Information: <https://www.stjosephunitedway.org/volunteer-center>

United Way of Greater St. Joseph

Volunteering Through United Way:

- Connects people with volunteer opportunities that match their interests, skills, and passions.
- Promotes volunteerism.
- Educates the public about the impact of volunteering in the community.

Cost: Free

When: Varies by activity

Where: Varies by activity

More Information: <https://www.stjosephunitedway.org/volunteer-center>

City of St. Joseph Boards and Commissions

If you are interested in serving on a board or commission, please fill out the online application and the City Clerk's Office will contact you. You can also print off the form (PDF) to fill out and return it to the City Clerk's Office.

Cost: Free

When: Varies by board/commission

Where: Varies by board/commission

More Information: <https://www.stjosephmo.gov/170/Boards-Commissions>